Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A briefing on plans for proposed construction of Palm Beach County's new jet airport was offered this week by the county commission, to groups which are interested in the development as an aid to seeking new industries for the area.

M. W. Sharpe, head of the Port of Palm Beach industrial development group, told the commission that many Northern industries are interested in jet airport plans and are seeking more information before making decisions to locate here.

Sharpe reported to the commission on a recent visit to New York City where he and David Brady, port engineer, conferred with 14 industrialists interested in locating in Palm Beach County.

Declining to identify any of the companies, Sharpe said most of them are manufacturers of electronic equipment or precision tools connected with the aviation field.

"There were no obnoxious industries," Sharpe said.

Of the 14 firms contacted, Sharpe said six of them are nearly "surefire" contacts and of the six, two firms are definitely interested in locating at the Port of Palm Beach.

Brady added that most firms are interested in the new jet airport and adjacent plant sites since most of the products and materials involved are shipped by air freight.

Commission Chairman Kenneth Foster suggested that a public meeting be held for various representatives seeking industry, to hear a review of airport plans. A time for the meeting was not set.

In other actions the commission received a letter from the Golfview POMA asking that laws be passed to curtail speeding and vandalism in the area; to establish a fund for school patrols; to establish a county recreation area in Golfview and to eliminate the fee system for the sheriff's department.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

Hello everybody! Virginia Mayo happens to be the indifferent possessor of a perfect figure that catches the attention of men and excites the envy of women. But it does not excite Virginia. The star would rather discuss almost anything else. "I came by it naturally," she explains. "I never struggled to get it. I've never had to do anything to keep it. Sometimes I wonder about all this when I see myself in the mirror." The look on Miss Mayo's classic countenance shows that she is actually perplexed. "Just now," she says, "I'd rather talk about the new picture I'm in, or maybe my gardening, or something I've always really had to work for." The glamorous Virginia, however, does not arbitrarily object to a discussion of her lovely physical attributes. She will tell you that she is too practical, perhaps too career-conscious for that. She has the fact and if questioned will state honestly that those beautiful curves, the 36 bust, 24 waist and 36 hips, and fabulous legs have all had their share in contributing to her special prominence on the motion picture screen. "If eating means anything, I consume plenty of meat and eggs and skip desserts. I never liked candy. Nine hours of sleep every night seems to be good for me and I adore my husband." This fortunate individual is Michael O'Shea, actor. See you at the movies—Mal.

Citrus Growers Has Sleepless Nights

LAKELAND—Mother Nature is on a re-greening rampage, causing many sleepless nights for Florida citrus growers, packers, shippers and the nation's retailers.

"Every once in awhile, Nature creates weather conditions which cause green color to re-appear in the skin of Florida oranges and grapefruit before they can be marketed," says Dr. L. G. MacDowell, Director of Research for the Florida Citrus Commission. "This is one of those seasons in Florida when Mother Nature is really running wild."

Dr. MacDowell explains that the combination of wet weather and heavy rainfall accelerates the trees' production of chlorophyll necessary to the development of next season's crop. During this rush of growth, excess chlorophyll backs up into the citrus fruit causing Florida oranges and grapefruit to turn green on the outside while being fully ripe on the inside.

Hence consumers look twice before buying fresh Florida oranges and grapefruit—while Mother Nature chuckles.

Passion Play Has Final Performance Easter Sunday

The greatest legitimate theatre attraction in Florida closes its 1957 winter season with the final performance, to be presented Easter Sunday, April 21st.

This, being a Sunday performance, will be a twilight performance, starting at 6 P. M. at the famed Lake Wales Amphitheatre. Twilight performances have been very successful this past season, since they permit the first part of the story to be told in daylight while the second half of the production is presented under the brilliant effects of the magnificent lighting system. Twilight performances make it possible for people living fifty or sixty miles from Lake Wales to return home at a reasonable hour after witnessing the production. Plans are now in progress to decide on the playing dates for the winter season of 1956.

Outdoor theatres in Florida have been a hazardous adventure. "Voice in the Wind" a pageant dealing with the early history of the State, as well as a group organized to present the Gilbert and Sullivan Operettas, and numerous others, had to close before they were even successfully launched. The Black Hills Passion Play is the only exception, and with its final performance this year will complete its fifth season.

One of the principal reasons for this phenomenon, perhaps, lies in the fact that Josef Meier, the guiding spirit behind the Black Hills Passion Play, will never lose sight of the fact that the great outdoor drama, the story of the seven last days of Christ, must forever be a vehicle of service to mankind rather than a business venture.

More and more with each passing week, Civic and Church groups, as well as Sunday School teachers, organize pilgrimages with the express purpose of visiting Lake Wales to see this outstanding drama and to see it is indeed a gripping experience described so adequately only a short time ago by Father Jerome of St. Joe's Abbey after he had visited Lake Wales and seen the Production. Writes the Reverend Father, "Lake Wales dared the ultimate. In its presentation of the Black Hills Passion Play, the superb actor, Josef Meier, appears on the vast open-air stage as the Christ and stoops to annoint the unseeing eyes of the blind man, and the blind man sees! Lake Wales in Florida, like the early pioneers of Florida, dared the ultimate, and the muted lips of the vast audience part with reverence while unashamed tears run in rills down cheeks of men and women who come from every State in the Union to pay homage to the condemned Miracle Worker of Galilee."

The people of America and Canada agree, for this year to Lake Wales came young and old alike—school boy and professor, layman and priest, minister and politician—all drawn by the magnetism of the Story of the Cross.

On Easter-Sunday, April 21st, at 6 P. M. the curtain will come down for the last time this season on the Play which in twenty-two deeply moving scenes tells the never-to-be-forgotten story. For two and one-half hours, the large and distinguished cast of actors, supported by the pageantry of the Orient of two thousand years ago, will bring to life once again the final events in the life of the simple Man of Galilee. Realistically, the Biblical scenes unfold with the early dawn of Palm Sunday as a camel caravan arrives in Jerusalem and a pilgrim announces the coming of Jesus to the multitude. It draws to a close as the Roman legions, mounted on white Arabian steeds, accompany the Man of Galilee and His heavy cross on the road to Golgotha. With a note of triumph, it ends with the glorious Ascension.

Reservations for this final performance of the 1957 Season of the Black Hills Passion Play can be arranged by writing to the Passion Play Amphitheatre of Florida, Box 71, Lake Wales, Florida, or phone Lake Wales 2-9111.

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home... financial security... a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4448.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

WSCS To Sponsor Fund-Raising Project

Members of the Mabel Simonson Circle, First Methodist WSCS, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Schroder Monday afternoon made plans for two benefit fund-raising projects, a rummage sale and a bake sale to be held Saturday, April 27. Mrs. Frank Friend will be in charge of arrangements for the bake sale and Mrs. Arch Blakey and Mrs. J. D. Rogers, the rummage sale, with other circle members to assist in both projects.

It was announced the circle will present the program at the May 6th meeting of the WSCS and will furnish part of the refreshments for the annual WSCS membership tea to be held next month.

Mrs. M. P. Holman reviewed part of the book, "Paul's Letters to the Local Churches. Mrs. Schroder was in charge of the prayer circle.

A new age of automobiles begins with this car

The FORD SKYLINER — world's only Hide-Away hardtop

Touch a button—in less than a minute the steel top disappears magically into the trunk—and you're in a supremely elegant convertible. It's two cars in one!

Once in a long, long while a car comes along that people remember and talk about for years after its introduction.

The first model "A" Ford was such a car...

The first Ford V-8 was such a car...

The first Ford Thunderbird was such a car.

Today Ford Division is proud to announce still another car that many say is destined to become the most famous Ford of all: The Skyliner—world's only hide-away hardtop.

If you plan to buy a new Ford, or already own one, the fact that Ford created this car is important to you. For all the exhaustive research, planning and testing that went into the Skyliner is evidence of the engineering skill you get in every Ford model.

The Ford SKYLINER, the only all-steel hide-away hardtop, is a car for history.

This is an old dream of Detroit, a dream of two generations of motorists. And today Ford has made that dream come true—in steel.

But the story behind this dream is a story of men who refused to accept "no" for an answer. In the Ford tradition, they kept striving toward the goal long after others had given up the chase.

To understand this Ford spirit you must go back to 1908. That was the year when many Detroiters smiled smugly as Henry Ford announced, "We will build a motor car for the great multitude... so low in price that no man making a good salary will be unable to own one." And they did.

Today, nearly a half century later, Ford continues to cause the "experts" to change their tune. When you see this all-steel hardtop that retracts into a convertible, you'll be seeing a car that many said would never be mass-produced.

But Ford did it.

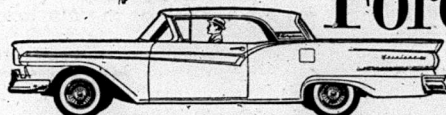

It was December 1956—after eight years of research, planning, experimenting and testing—when Ford unveiled this masterpiece... unveiled it amid all the pomp and splendor of the New York Automobile Show.

And now this history-making car, this prototype of a whole future generation of cars, is ready for your own personal inspection in the showrooms of many Ford Dealers.

Plan to see it soon. And ask your Dealer to show you the exciting advances in all models of the new Ford line for '57.

It's the newest new kind of

Make your dream house come true! It's easy —through Payroll Savings!

If you think you can't own the home of your dreams because the down payment's too steep, chances are you've never tried the Payroll Savings Plan. Because this is the easy, automatic way to meet any down payment—for a house or any large purchase.

Just do this: Sign a Payroll Savings application at your pay office, naming a certain sum to be kept aside from your pay before you get it each week—a few dollars or as much as you want. After that, you're saving automatically—nothing to worry about, nothing to do. And, best of all, the money saved out of your pay each week is automatically invested for you in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn solid interest—3% cumulative semiannually when held to maturity —the few dollars saved from your pay each week soon grow into big generous amounts. For instance, if you sign for $12.50 a week, in just five years you'll have $3,348.95 cash. In 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $7,217.29!

So don't let down payments get you down. Meet your needs for ready cash the way more than 8 million other Americans are meeting theirs—join the Payroll Savings Plan today. Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Bonds regularly where you bank. Start now to make your dreams come true!

If you want your interest at current income, ask your bank about Series H Bonds, which pay interest annually by Treasury check.

Correlative passages from Science and Health include the following (45:16): "Glory be to God, and peace to the struggling hearts! Christ hath rolled away the stone from the door of human hope and faith, and through the revelation and demonstration of life in God, hath elevated them to possible at-one-ment with the spiritual idea of man and his divine Principle, Love."

Sanford Market To Be Rebuilt

WINTER HAVEN — "Sanford State Farmers' Market buildings destroyed in a disastrous early morning fire recently are to be rebuilt at once", according to L. H. Lewis, director of Florida's State Market System. "This is the worst fire in the Market System's history, but I have assurance from Governor LeRoy Collins, chairman of the State Agricultural Marketing Board, and Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo, member of the Board, and under whose department the markets are operated, that rebuilding of these facilities will get underway just as quickly as the area can be cleaned and materials assembled."

"Business in a limited way will continue as evidenced by some burned-out operators loading out almost as much produce recently, following the fire, as the previous days. (Produce is brought to Sanford from other areas in the state and mixed carloads are assembled at Sanford.) Operators escaping the disaster are offering full cooperation and every assistance to those less fortunate."

"Sanford Market, built in 1934, was the forerunner of Florida's nationally recognized market system, and has remained one of our most important markets, having moved in excess of 31,100,000 bushels of every variety of produce, valued at better than $63,887,000.00 since its opening date. This market is unique in the system in that it is an assembly market for produce grown throughout Florida and Manager Sandy Anderson calls it "Florida's One Stop Loading Center", Lewis said.

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain!

Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 ... a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 ... and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 ... in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 ... and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid
your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $30,000.
